About the Presenters

Linus Chan of the University of Minnesota Law School's James H. Binger Center for New Americans practices immigration law with a focus on representing people who are detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement. On faculty at the University of Minnesota Law School since 2013, he teaches the Detainee Rights Clinic which provides representation and support for those facing removal from the United States detained in the Twin Cities area.

JaPaul Harris has served as a Fourth Judicial District Court Referee since 2012. Prior to his appointment, Referee Harris was a Managing/Supervising Attorney with Mid-Minnesota Legal Aid and a Staff Attorney with Southern Minnesota Regional Legal Services. Referee Harris has also worked as an attorney for the Minneapolis Public School District. Referee Harris received his B.A. from Syracuse University and his J.D. from Mitchell Hamline School of Law.
