

LRAP MINNESOTA

HELPING LAWYERS HELP THE DISADVANTAGED

Presents:

Bridging the Gap:

Addressing Racial Disparities and Other Barriers to Student Success in K-12 Education

Event Sponsors: Fredrikson & Byron and Xcel Energy Office of General Counsel

Moderator Patrick Diamond has served as a judge in Ramsey County since 2012. He previously held several management positions with the Hennepin County Attorney's Office, and began his legal career as an associate at Oppenheimer, Wolff & Donnelly. Among his community activities, Judge Diamond has served as a member of the Fourth Judicial District's Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative as part of the Eliminating Racial Disparities Committee. Judge Diamond received his B.A. from Hamline University and his J.D. from the University of Minnesota Law School.

*Thanks to Fredrikson & Byron,
Xcel Energy Office of General Counsel
and other community support,
we are able to offer this event
free of charge to attendees.*

Panel of LRAP Recipients and Other Experts

Alison Griffith* of The Advocates for Human Rights represents youth in immigration cases.

Maren Hilden of the Minnesota Disability Law Center is an expert in special education.

Chelsea Schmitz* of the Legal Rights Center helps youth through education, advocacy, and restorative services.

Rebecca Stone* of Legal Services of Northwest Minnesota represents foster youth in their teens and early 20s, many are native.

Laura Wilson of the Youth Law Project primarily serves homeless and unaccompanied youth.

*- LRAP Recipient

November 15, 2018 • 3:00pm-5:00pm

Faegre Baker Daniels

2200 Wells Fargo Center
90 South Seventh Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Two elimination of bias CLE credits have been applied for.

Please RSVP to Heather Vlieger at HeatherRV@mnbar.org/612-278-6315

600 Nicollet Mall Ste 380 Minneapolis, MN 55402

web: www.lrapmn.org